Mr. and Mrs. John McGinness of Butte are registered at the Kenyon.

Hon. David Keith returned from a business trip to Tintic last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Hanley of Eureka, are in the city on their wedding trip.

Mrs. W. S. McCormick remembered St. Ann's orphans on Thanksgiving day.

Mr. Quinn of the Silver King mine in Park City is very ill at St. Mary's hospital.

Martin McDermott, the young son of William McDermott, is almost well again.

Mrs. Quillen, who has been very ill for the past two months, is rapidly recovering.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Driscoll of Eureka, spent a few days here the first of the week.

W. H. Nichols came down from Butte on Tuesday and left for Bingham the same day.

Frank Burke of the Central Mammoth, came in from Mammoth on Tuesday.

J. C. Sullivan, manager of the Raymond mine, in Eureka, was a city visitor last week.

Timothy Mulrooney and family have gone to Denver where they will reside for the future.

John Hickey, master mechanic of the Rio Grande Western shops, has gone to Chicago on business.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Ryan of Ogden spent Sunday here, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Young.

Owing to the snow and frost work on the cathedral foundation has been suspended for a short time.

J. C. Lynch, through his agent, W. J. Halloran, has purchased a site for a new home on the east side.

The children of St. Ann's Orphanage gave a very pleasing entertainment last week. The Right Reverend Bishop and clergy were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hunt have the sympathy of their many friends over losing their little baby, Donnell. He was sick only a short time.

Mrs. P. Kervin and family, with her sister, Miss Halley, will spend the winter here and will occupy J. C. Boyle's residence, 635 East First South.

Rev. Father Mannion, pastor at Eureka, is here for a few days. He will leave Park City on Tuesday and was the guest of Rev. Thomas Galligan.

James Earle, former superintendent of the Mammoth Mining company, has accepted the management of the War Eagle property at Silver City, Ida.

Friday, Dec. 8, was the Feast of the Immaculate Conception. Masses were said at 7 and 9. Benediction was given immediately after 9 o'clock service.

Miss Kinsella will assist the choir at St. Mary's for Christmas. Miss Kinsella has a beautiful high soprano voice and all will be delighted to hear her once more.

The will of the late Patrick Kervin was filed for probate last week. The estate consists of property valued at $250,000, to be divided between his wife and three children.

Mrs. J. Hal Moore sang an "Ave Maria" for the offertory on last Sunday. The song was very sweet, Mrs. Moore having a very sweet voice and singing with much expression.

Mrs. Thomas Kearns, as usual, did not forget her little charges at St. Ann's on Thanksgiving day. Twenty turkeys were sent there and the little ones ate their fill and sang the praises of their patroness.

Yesterday being the feast of the Immaculate Conception Right Reverend Bishop celebrated Mass at St. Ann's Academy. The children of Mary had a special meeting, it being the particular feast day of their sodality.

Mr. Charles Quigley, manager of the Studebaker Bros. firm in Utah, with I. M. Studebaker, Jr., and Mr. Riley, auditor of the company, were in Logan on Tuesday on business. While there Mr. Studebaker became very ill and is now at the Knutsford confined to his room.

Rev. Father McCorry, the distinguished Paulist missionary, who has been conducting a successful mission in Montana for the last few months, was a city visitor the early part of the week, and not being in the best health remained at the Holy Cross hospital a few days.

Cards are out announcing the engagement of Miss Lulu Mierster and Mr. Richard Keenan of Rock Springs. Miss Mierster is a graduate in music of St. Mary's Academy, and is a very accomplished young lady, while Mr. Keenan is master of Kemmerer, Wyo., and a prominent business man there.

Leigh Brown, bookkeeper for the Consolidated Implement company, died on Tuesday evening. He had been a great sufferer from tuberculosis for many years. He leaves a wife and two little children. Mr. Brown had a host of friends who will sympathize deeply with his family in their grief.

The first annual exhibit of the Utah Institute of Art opened Tuesday evening. From an artistic standpoint the exhibit is the finest ever given by the local artists. It consists of 200 paintings by Utah artists. Work in oil, water colors, china painting and portrait work all make a fine display.

Salt Lake is noted for its many sweet singers. Principally among them may be reckoned the little nieces and nephews of Mr. George Kelley of the firm Kelley & Co. Irene and Gertrude are 12 years old and sing duets with the ease of professionals. Irene has a sweet light soprano voice and Gertrude a deep alto.

Little Marguerite McHugh, daughter of Mr. McHugh, the well known mining man, met with a distressing accident while at school on Thursday. She was closing the door when the glass plate broke and fragments showed on her, cutting her face and head severely.

Mr. James Shields of Chicago, who is better known as "Jim the can-story man," and probably one of the most versatile and entertaining raconteurs in the intermountain country, where he is so well and favorably known, arrived in town this week with a cargo of new Irish and German stories.

Rev. Thomas Linehan, bishop of Wyoming, was in the city the past week the guest of Rev. Bishop Scanlan. He was accompanied by Rev. Father Delahanty of Rock Springs and Rev. Father Casey of Evanston. The bishop left on Thursday for Rock Springs, and will administer confirmation to a large class of children and adults at Kemmerer tomorrow. Rev. Father Casey returned to Evanston on Tuesday, and Rev. Father Delahanty returned to Rock Springs on Thursday.

Maurice Joy, the oldest inmate of St. Mary's hospital, died last Sunday afternoon. Eighteen years ago his back was broken while working in the mines in Pioche, Nev., and he was brought to St. Mary's hospital, where he became the charge of the Sisters, who gave him every tender attention. He was only 28 years old when the accident happened. The sunny sweetness of his Irish nature manifested itself through all his suffering and his patient submission made him many warm friends, who will miss him, but will be glad for his own sake that his poor racked body is at rest—the rest that he could not find here—'asleep with God's peace upon him.' He was buried on Wednesday from St. Mary's Cathedral.

Rev. Father Curran delivered a very appropriate sermon at the Cathedral. The interment was in Mt. Calvary cemetery, and was in charge of O'Donnell Bros. A sister of the deceased, Mrs. Marcus Kaira, her husband and son, Edward, arrived from Denver and attended the funeral. Many of the Sisters from the Holy Cross Hospital accompanied his remains to the cemetery.

EUREKA

(Correspondence Intermountain Catholic.)

Eureka, Utah, Dec. 2.—The social event of the season was the marriage of Mr. Nicholas Hanley and Miss Minnie O'Neill, which occurred Wednesday morning, Nov. 23, at 9 a. m. Rev. Father Donohue officiating at the nuptial High Mass, assisted by the choir.

Mr. Patrick Engan and Miss Ella O'Neill, the bride's sister, were the groomsmen and bridesmaids. The bride was attired in a handsome traveling costume of cadet blue, with trimmings of chiffon and pearl passementerie, with hat and gloves to match. The groom was attired in conventional black. After the ceremony the guests repaired to the home of the groom's parents, where an elegant wedding breakfast was served.

The newly-married couple were the happy recipients of many costly and beautiful presents. They were accompanied to the depot by a large circle of admiring friends, who, when the train was leaving, cast old shoes and showers of rice after them. Mr. and Mrs. Hanley will be at home to their friends after Dec. 5.

Last week, while cleaning a well, Mr. Henry Bannan miraculously escaped from death. Mr. Bannan was at the bottom of the well, some fifty feet deep, when one of the back buckets being used to hoist the dirt slipped away from the helper and dropped down, striking Mr. Bannan on the back of the left hand, almost breaking it.

Mr. Hanley will be at home to their friends after Dec. 5.
